Description

Samuel Wyld's The PRACTICAL SURVEYOR OR THE ART OF LAND-MEASURING MADE EASY is in its original 1769 leather binding. The inside of this book is very tight, both joints of the front and back boards are weak but both boards are firmly attached. A paper label was added to the spine at a later date. The lower part of the spine has some leathering missing and the leather on the upper spine is chipped. There are SIX FOLDING PLATES in addition to the rather spectacular FOLDING FRONTIS PIECE which has two tripods. Tfolding plats are somewhat water stained but overll, are in good condition. The book is 5 1/4" by 8 1/8" by 7/8". seller travels out of the US frequently for 3 or 4 days. Cashier checks or money orders, will attempt to mail next day. Personal checks, 10 days. Georgia residence at 6% sales tax. US buyer pays $5 for shipping. International buyer pays actual cost.
