Description

This is a all brass transit by Stackpole & Brothers, New York. IT is in excellent condition except for one level on the top. It is just a little level tube that slides into place and probably costs $5 in a catalog to order. I have taken several pictures to show the quality and detail of this fine instrument. If you have any questions feel free to email. I do not have the legs or box for this transit. Buyer pays $15 for shipping in U.S.
